Salt Lake City – 801.933.8912

Alex connects attorneys with meaningful pro bono opportunities that expand access to legal services for underserved communities.

By developing and supporting partnerships with legal service organizations, community groups, and firm attorneys, Alex helps facilitate impactful projects that benefit clients, strengthen communities, and foster a culture of service within the firm. With a background in higher education program management and public service, Alex brings a strategic and relationship-driven approach to coordinating pro bono initiatives. She organizes trainings, clinics, and collaborative pro bono efforts that engage attorneys at all levels.
