Salt Lake City – 801.933.4048

Ashley helps clients achieve their business goals by providing quality assistance in the energy and natural resource industry with transactions, title opinions, and administrative hearings.

Ashley has over 10 years of paralegal experience in the field of oil, gas, and mining. Her skillset includes title examination of federal, state, private, and Indian lands throughout the Rocky Mountain region as well as in North Dakota and Montana. She is familiar with and frequently obtains the records of multiple agencies across a variety of states, including the Utah Division of Oil, Gas and Mining, Bureau of Land Management, Utah School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration, NDIC, and NDRIN.

Ashley also assists with due diligence matters, and reviews title commitments, underlying title documents, and surveys.
