Minneapolis – 612.492.5369

Ben assists clients with estate planning, business succession planning, and tax planning.

Ben focuses his practice on estate planning and estate and trust administration. He works closely with individuals and families to design wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and health care directives that reflect their personal goals and provide clarity and peace of mind. He emphasizes practical planning that is tailored to each client's circumstances and long-term objectives.

Ben also advises individual and corporate fiduciaries in the administration of estates and trusts. He assists with identifying and transferring assets, addressing fiduciary responsibilities, coordinating post-death tax planning, and preparing the documents required for proper administration. His approach is grounded in providing clear guidance and steady support throughout each stage of the planning and administration process.

Ben is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps and served in Iraq and Afghanistan.
