

Beth Lopez

Associate

lopez.beth@dorsey.com

Dallas – 214.981.9990

Beth diligently works to assist both large and small employers navigate workplace challenges, including providing day-to-day advice and strong advocacy when disputes arise.

Beth focuses on advising and representing employers across the full spectrum of workplace issues, from everyday counseling to complex litigation. She partners with clients to deliver practical, business-focused guidance and strategies that mitigate risk, control costs, and support effective workforce management.

Beth also defends employers of all sizes in state and federal administrative proceedings, civil proceedings, and arbitrations. Known for a clear, efficient approach and strong advocacy, she helps clients navigate disputes with confidence while staying focused on their broader business objectives.

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas
- U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas
- U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas

Education

- Washington University in St. Louis School of Law (J.D., 2025)
 - cum laude
- Washington University in St. Louis (B.A., Psychological and Brain Sciences, 2022)
 - universali cum honore

Bar Admissions

- Texas