

Cloe Nixon

Government Affairs Manager

nixon.cloe@dorsey.com

Salt Lake City – 801.933.4017

Washington, DC – 801.933.4017

At Dorsey & Whitney, Cloe manages government affairs initiatives for clients across a variety of industries.

An experienced project manager adept in strategy development, problem solving, and stakeholder engagement, she is passionate about working with clients and the firm's legal experts to develop effective strategies to efficiently advance government affairs goals. Drawing on experience working in Senator Orrin Hatch's office and Governor Gary Herbert's Administration, she provides unique insight into issues shaping Utah's economic and political landscape.

Cloe's work on behalf of clients includes identifying strategic opportunities, conducting stakeholder outreach and relationship building, and monitoring policy and regulatory activity to assess potential impacts on businesses, driving smart policy engagement. As a registered Utah Lobbyist, Cloe collaborates closely with State Legislators, regulators, government officials, political groups, industry associations, and others to promote client interests and advance policies that strengthen Utah's business community. Cloe holds a Political Science degree from Brigham Young University and a Master of Public Policy from the University of Utah.

Education

- University of Utah (M.P.P.)
- Brigham Young University (B.S., Political Science)

Accolades

- Salt Lake Chamber, Trailblazer Award, 2023

Insights

November 14, 2025

What Does Utah's New Congressional Map Mean for Your Company?

January 31, 2024

Utah Legislature Enacts Comprehensive Prohibition on the Use of DEI in Public

Education and in State Government

December 21, 2023

The Tools Shaping Utah's Economy in 2024

August 9, 2023

Trailblazer Award Given to Dorsey's Government Affairs Manager Cloe Nixon

November 21, 2022

DIG Magazine - Fourth Quarter 2022

June 17, 2021

USICA Passage Suggests Significant Funding Opportunities Across Range of Industries