

Comparison of Canadian and U.S. Securities Laws

December 5, 2024 – Cross-Border Counselor

by Christopher L. Doerksen

Last month, I was invited to speak to the Canadian Securities Administrators, focusing on how U.S. securities exemptions, prospectus forms, and continuous disclosure requirements differ from their Canadian counterparts. One of the handouts was a side-by-side comparison of the different exemptions and forms, that we thought our readers might also appreciate. Here is an updated version you can download and print.

Related People

- Christopher L. Doerksen

Related Capabilities

- Canada Cross-Border Transactions