

Dallas

by Fernando Avelar, Chelsea Hilliard, Cort Hoge, Bradley M. Pugh, Clay Pulliam, and Jonathan Vance

Our Dallas office opened in 2017 and is quickly expanding to meet the growing demands the area offers. Our Dallas team serves clients in a wide variety of services with a particular focus on finance (including senior cash flow and asset based lending, mezzanine financings, second lien financings and unitranche debt), private equity, litigation, M&A, general corporate and securities matters.

Originally famous for its cotton and oil businesses, Dallas has emerged as the headquarters of choice for many Fortune 500 companies. From food and beverage to health care and telecommunications, Dallas offers a vibrant community to all types of up-and-coming and well-established businesses. Dallas is known for its rich history, thriving art scene and trendy nightlife. With more than 90 state parks, Texas also offers endless opportunities for outdoor activities and adventure.

Members of the Recruiting Committee

Related People

- Fernando Avelar
- Chelsea Hilliard
- Cort Hoge
- Bradley M. Pugh
- Clay Pulliam
- Jonathan Vance