

Delaware Takes Action Against Formation of Cannabis Companies

October 15, 2019 – Cross-Border Counselor

by Christopher L. Doerksen

As reported earlier today on our Cannabis blog, the Delaware Secretary of State's office is now threatening to prevent the formation of companies that it identifies as having the purpose of being involved in the cannabis industry. For more information, see dorsecann.com/delaware-takes-action-against-formation-of-cannabis-companies/.

Related People

- Christopher L. Doerksen

Related Capabilities

- Canada Cross-Border Transactions