

Dorsey Partner Troy Keller Interviewed About Utah's Major Port Strike

Troy Keller was noted as a Utah World Trade Center expert by KUTV, a Salt Lake City news station, and asked to weigh in on the major port strike underway in Utah. Troy discussed the potential duration of the strike and its impacts on produce supply chains, prices across the country, and congestion of other ports on the west coast. He shared his views on the probability of the worker's demands being met and the future of automation in ports.
