Minneapolis – 612.492.5275

From startups to Fortune 500 companies, Femi works closely with clients, helping them navigate complex transactions and crucial business decisions.

He is dedicated to building long-lasting relationships with companies, investors, and founders. Clients rely on Femi for his calm thoughtful guidance and trusted counsel. His areas of practice include mergers and acquisitions, private equity and venture financing, securities law compliance, corporate governance, and cooperative law.

In law school, Femi served as the President of the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau, one of the nation's oldest student-run legal aid organizations. At the Bureau, Femi effectively guided the organization in delivering on its mission to provide quality legal representation to underserved communities in the greater Boston area.

Out of the office, you can find Femi watching Premier league soccer matches or cooking traditional Nigerian meals.
