Denver – 303.629.3438

Greg teams with clients to help guide them through problems that may result in needing to defend a lawsuit or that may require aggressively enforcing rights through litigation.

After assessing his client's business needs and long-term strategies, Greg maximizes the legal tools available to obtain the best results possible for his clients.

Greg has argued intellectual property disputes and commercial cases in venues all over the country, including winning international arbitrations, jury trials and appellate matters. He routinely advises clients concerning all aspects of intellectual property matters, partnership disputes, securities cases, products liability issues, real estate litigation, and general contract claims.

Greg is co-leader of Dorsey's Trial Group and serves on Dorsey's Management Committee.
