

How Are We Doing, Internet?

July 30, 2018 – The TMCA

by J. Michael Keyes

Hi, Readers! It's theTMCA.com here, checking in to see how we're doing. See, we try hard to make our posts on trademarks, copyrights, and advertising law entertaining and informative for you. We know that there are a million places for you to get your legal updates, and we work hard to make you glad you chose to come here for yours.

In 2017, you rewarded our hard work by landing theTMCA.com a spot on the Web 100, the American Bar Association Law Journal's list of the top law blogs, podcasts, and tweeters. We were thrilled! Let's face it, almost all recognition is nice, but this recognition was extra nice because it resulted purely through the nominations made by YOU, our loyal readers. That's why we are secretly still beaming with pride.

But do you still like us? Are we still satisfying your cravings for IP legal news delivered with a twist of humor?

If the answer is "Yes!", would you consider helping us make the list again by nominating us for the 2018 Web 100?

If the answer is "Meh...", please please please contact us and tell us what we can do better. We do this for you, and we want to do it right.
