

Jack Rauch

Associate

rauch.jack@dorsey.com

Phoenix – 602.837.3009

Jack supports companies and investors at every stage navigate a wide range of corporate matters with practical, business-minded legal guidance.

Jack's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, strategic investments, and a broad range of corporate and transactional matters. He represents companies and investors at all stages of the business lifecycle, from emerging growth ventures to established enterprises. Drawing on his experience in private equity, investment banking, and as an entrepreneur, Jack brings a business-first perspective to each engagement, helping clients navigate complex issues with clarity and confidence. He regularly advises on buy-side and sell-side transactions, joint ventures, governance matters, and general corporate needs, and works closely with founders, management teams, and deal professionals to structure and execute transactions efficiently. Jack's practical, solutions-oriented approach emphasizes commercial judgment, responsiveness, and an understanding of each client's strategic objectives.

Education

- University of Chicago (J.D., 2025)
 - Dean's Award – Best Grade in Torts
 - Mark Claster Mamolen Scholarship
 - Doctoroff Business Leadership Fellow
- University of Chicago Booth School of Business (MBA, 2025)
 - Dean's List
- University of Southern California (B.S., Business Administration, 2020)
 - Summa Cum Laude (Top 1%)
 - Dean's List
 - USC Marshall Global Leadership Program (Top 10%)

Bar Admissions

- Arizona