Jenny's practice focuses on helping clients develop estate and business succession plans and advising both individual and corporate fiduciaries on estate and trust administration issues.

Jenny Ede is a partner in the Tax, Trusts and Estates Department. Her practice is focused on serving high net-worth individuals and families, closely held business owners and executives, corporate fiduciaries in all areas of estate and tax planning, including both domestic and international estate planning as well as trust and estate administration. Jenny's background in finance and experience with trust administration allows her to guide clients through the legal, financial, and practical impacts of their estate plans.

Jenny also serves on several charity boards and regularly advises charitable organizations and individuals with respect to the formation and administration of charitable entities (including public charities and private foundations).
