

Jonathan Vance

Partner

vance.jonathan@dorsey.com

Dallas – 214.981.9977

Jonathan helps clients navigate complex financing transactions with strategic and practical guidance.

Jonathan focuses on a wide variety of secured financing transactions representing both bank and non-bank lenders in a variety of cash flow and asset-based lending transactions, including lender finance, acquisition finance, and other specialty finance transactions.

Prior to joining Dorsey, Jonathan served as a finance attorney at several international law firms, where he concentrated his practice in cash flow and asset-based lending and other syndicated and non-syndicated finance transactions.

Select Experience

- Represented a national bank as agent in an approximately US$125 million secured revolver and term loan facility to a truck equipment and accessories manufacturer. *
- Represented a national bank as agent in an approximately US$250 million secured ABL credit facility and floorplan line to a regional car dealership business. *
- Represented a national bank as agent in an approximately US$2 billion ABL credit facility to a borrower in the technology equipment distribution industry. *
- Represented a national bank as agent in the workout of a US$250 million revolver and term loan facility to a borrower in the healthcare services industry. *

Education

- Harvard Law School (J.D., 2009)
- Dartmouth College (B.A., History, 2006)
 - magna cum laude

Bar Admissions

- Texas
- New York