

Jordan L. Stott

Partner

stott.jordan@dorsey.com

Boise – 208.617.2535

Jordan focuses on the protection of innovative products, the development of brands, and enforcement of intellectual property rights.

Jordan has represented clients ranging from start-ups to multinational corporations in patent, trademark, trade secret, and copyright litigation in federal courts and before the Patent and Trademark Office. Jordan also has experience managing international disputes over intellectual property.

He has worked with a wide array of technologies such as firearms, aerospace, medical devices, fitness equipment, food processing, mechanical systems, and more. Jordan has also assisted in patent prosecution and portfolio management throughout the world, including in foreign jurisdictions such as in Europe and Asia.

Jordan served as an input editor for the Idaho Law Review, and previously interned at the United States Patent and Trademark Office where he examined patent applications and participated in proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board.

Select Experience

- Defended architectural firm in copyright infringement matter. Case settled favorably after motion to dismiss was filed.
- Represented trademark owner and regional publisher in the District of Idaho in trademark infringement matter. Successfully defended countersuit and obtained settlement for injunctive relief.
- Represented patent owner in patent infringement matter involving firearm accessories. Case settled favorably after claim construction briefing.
- Represented trademark owner and manufacturer of aftermarket parts for high-performance snowmobiles in the District of Idaho in trademark infringement matter. Case settled favorably after motion for preliminary injunction was filed.

Education

- University of Idaho College of Law (J.D., 2015)
 - cum laude
- Utah State University (B.S., Mechanical Engineering, 2012)

Bar Admissions

- Idaho
- United States Patent and Trademark Office

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court for the District of Idaho

Professional Affiliations

- Board Member, Idaho Technology Council, 2022 - present
- Member, American Intellectual Property Law Association, 2015 - present
- Member, American Bar Association, 2015 – present

Select Presentations

- Co-Presenter, “Intellectual Property Law and You,” ICTE Professional Development Conference, August 2017