Josh is a creative and tenacious advisor with a record of success in the courtroom and a proven ability to advance client interests outside of litigation.

Josh is a Partner in Dorsey's Commercial Litigation Group. Josh has a broad practice that spans many areas of business law and civil litigation. Josh has significant experience advising on matters related to health care, contracts, fiduciary duties, shareholder disputes, securities, appeals, and torts. Josh's expertise in fiduciary matters includes issues related to corporate governance, director and officer duties, and trust/estate litigation. Josh's torts experience includes matters related to products liability, fraud, negligence, and other business torts.

Josh also has extensive experience negotiating, drafting, reviewing, and advising on complex commercial contracts pertaining to a wide variety of subject matters and industries, including product distribution and sales, licensing, supply chains, insurance, employment, and health care.

Josh has experience advising a diverse array of clients, including individuals, startups, closely held LLCs and corporations, and publicly traded companies.

Since 2022, Josh has been included in the annual publication of Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch. Josh has also been recognized three times as a Super Lawyers Rising Star.

Apart from his commercial practice, Josh also maintains an active pro bono practice focused on representing indigent defendants in federal and state criminal cases, obtaining post-conviction relief for wrongly convicted individuals, and serving as a small claims court judge.
