

Molly Wang

Associate

wang.molly@dorsey.com

Shanghai – +86-21 6135-6117

Molly advises international businesses in complex transactions, focusing on Chinese domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, and general corporate matters.

Molly has five years of private practice experience in the Chicago and Shanghai offices of an international law firm prior to joining Dorsey.

Working with clients in a global context, coupled with her sensitivity to legal and business matters, Molly has a differentiated ability to assist clients to navigate multi-jurisdictional transactions. Molly is also dedicated to solving problems for the clients on more routine matters by applying project management practices.

Select Experience

Mergers & Acquisitions

- Advised a leading global investment firm on its acquisition of an insulation company for USD 1 billion;
- Assisted an SZSE-listed company in an auction for the acquisition of a multi-national company in the agriculture industry;
- Represented a private company in its acquisition of interests in an Indonesian crude oil field from a Chinese state-owned company;
- Represented a private company in its acquisition of a photovoltaic asset in Iran from a British company;

Court Admissions

- People's Republic of China (currently inactive)

Accolades

- Contributed more than 50 Diversity hours, 2023

Education

- Northwestern University (LLM, 2017)
- East China University of Political Science and Law (LLB, 2014)
- Shanghai International Studies University (B.A., Economics, 2014)

Bar Admissions

- California

Languages

- English (proficient)
- Mandarin Chinese (native)
- Shanghai Dialect (native)