

Nisha Verma Addresses Confusion Surrounding Dept. of Labor's End to Discrimination Investigations of Federal Contractors

by Nisha Verma

Nisha Verma addressed the confusion surrounding the Department of Labor's end to all "investigative and enforcement activity" previously required under the Equal Employment Opportunity order. Nisha pointed out that "the Trump executive orders basically makes it a violation of Trump's order to do exactly what contractors were required to do for 60 years under the previous order." "If you keep doing what you were doing five days ago, you're in trouble," she added.

Read the full article on HR Brew to learn more.

Related People

- Nisha Verma

Related Capabilities

- Labor & Employment
- Executive Actions Resources
- Executive Actions Tracker