

Partner Joe Acosta Comments on Connection Between Supply Chain Issues and Bankruptcy

Dallas Partner Joe Acosta was quoted in an S&P Global Market Intelligence article on the supply chain and market trends causing increases in bankruptcy filings. Some statistics show that corporate bankruptcy filings reached a 13-year peak in 2023 and many fingers are pointed at the supply chain disruptions of 2021 and 2022. "There's a ripple effect that occurs, which takes a while to reverberate throughout the economy," said Joe.

Read the full article on S&P Global Market Intelligence.

Related Capabilities

- Bankruptcy & Financial Restructuring