

Phoenix Business Journal: Dorsey & Whitney's Phoenix Office Grows Tenfold in Two Years

Since September 2023, Dorsey & Whitney's Phoenix office has added 10 attorneys, with the latest partner being Brad Wright who joined the firm on April 2, 2024.

"I am thrilled about contributing to the firm's work across the country in the development space," said Brad about his arrival to Dorsey.

Phoenix Business Journal featured the office in their latest issue and wrote about the office's huge growth in the market since it opened in 2022. "Minneapolis law firm's Phoenix office sees tenfold growth in just two years," writes reporter Mignon Gould. "Founded in 1912 with international offices throughout the US and in Canada, Europe and the Asia-Pacific region, Dorsey & Whitney's Phoenix-based office is leading in growth."

In January 2024, the firm also hired several other attorneys including government solutions and investigations partner Seth Goertz, finance and restructuring partner Kate Moore, real estate partner Michael Fritz, and litigation partner Nicole Stanton, a former managing partner at Quarles & Brady.

Read the full Phoenix Business Journal article. (A subscription may be required)