

Pleading Rules At Stake In High Court Hamas Banking Case

by Lanier Saperstein and Helen Jiang

Partner Lanier Saperstein and Associate Helen Jiang, both practicing out of Dorsey's New York office, authored an article in Law360 analyzing the impact of last week's BLOM Bank SAL v. Honickman oral arguments before the Supreme Court. "The court's decision will provide further clarity on the standard to seek post judgment relief for purposes of amending pleadings and could drastically affect plaintiffs' pleading strategies."

Read the full article published by Law360.

Related People

- Lanier Saperstein
- Helen Jiang

Related Capabilities

- Banking & Financial Institutions