Salt Lake City – 801.933.4057

Sherri helps lawyer teams in Intellectual Property Litigation, Complex Litigation, and Employment Litigation.

Sherri is a detail-oriented professional. As a paralegal, she manages all types of civil and intellectual property litigation cases. She has a proven ability to assist with litigation matters (large or small) which involves document collection and management, discovery tasks, pretrial preparation, and trial support, including attendance and presentation throughout trial.

Prior to joining Dorsey, Sherri was a paralegal at two regional law firms, and she has over 35 years of experience in that role. At one of those firms, she also worked in the computer department where she was responsible for training more than 100 attorneys, paralegals and staff in the conversion from DOS to Windows with training in Outlook, Word, and various other programs.
