

Taylor Otterstatter

Associate

otterstatter.taylor@dorsey.com

Des Moines – 515.697.3629

Taylor counsels clients with respect to all types of complex finance transactions for governments, non-profit and for-profit entities.

Taylor counsels clients in varying legal roles regarding aspects of tax-exempt and taxable financings, including as borrower, underwriter, bond and bank counsel, working on projects across state boundaries to support development in housing, infrastructure, energy and other public-benefit economic development initiatives.

Taylor also has experience as counsel to borrowers and lenders in corporate finance transactions including acquisitions, mergers, refinancings, and other secured and unsecured credit facilities.

Taylor has further experience representing lenders and tax credit investors in complex tax credit finance transactions.

Select Experience

- State development authority counsel in modifying master trust holding over $900 million in assets to be leveraged for economic development within the state.
- Bond counsel in $13 million tax-exempt multi-family housing financing in Iowa.
- Borrower counsel in $100 million crypto-currency-secured revolving line of credit and additional $100 million extension. *
- Fruit farm and processing borrower counsel in multiple term and revolving facilities totaling over $100 million in the aggregate, secured by, among other things, multi-jurisdictional mortgages. *

Professional Affiliations

- Member, American Bar Association
- Member, Minnesota State Bar Association
- Member, Hennepin County Bar Association

Education

- University of Minnesota Law School (J.D., 2022)
- University of Northern Iowa (B.S., Economics, 2019)

Bar Admissions

- Iowa
- Minnesota

Additional Information

- Co-author, Chambers and Partners Practice Guide – Debt Finance 2025 – USA – Minnesota (April 29, 2025)
- Co-author, Minnesota Contracts Deskbook, 5th edition, Chapter 1