

The Supreme Court Update - March 27, 2023

by Brock Huebner

Today, the Supreme Court of the United States granted certiorari in one case:

Acheson Hotels, LLC v. Laufer, No. 22-429: This case involves the scope of Article III standing to enforce the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. The question presented is: Whether a self-appointed Americans with Disabilities Act “tester” has Article III standing to challenge a place of public accommodation’s failure to provide disability accessibility information on its website, even if she lacks any intention of visiting that place of public accommodation.
