by Brock Huebner

Today, the Supreme Court of the United States granted certiorari in one case:

Great Lakes Insurance SE v. Raiders Retreat Realty Co., LLC, No. 22-500: This case involves the interaction between a contract's choice-of-law provision and federal admiralty law. The question presented is: Whether, under federal admiralty law, a choice-of-law clause in a maritime contract can be rendered unenforceable if enforcement is contrary to the "strong public policy" of the state whose law is displaced.
