

The Tools Shaping Utah's Economy in 2024

by Troy M. Keller and Cloe Nixon

Troy Keller, Partner, and Cloe Nixon, Government Affairs Manager, coauthored an article in the Utah Business Journal. They identified some of the key economic tools wielded at the state level and collected the wisdom of some of Utah's smartest and most plugged-in professionals to provide insights into the coming year. These policy tools include:

1. Innovative legislation
2. A smart budget
3. Economic development & promoting Utah (around the world)
4. Education and training initiatives
5. Leaning into our advantages
