

Tony Martello

Associate

martello.tony@dorsey.com

Dallas – 214.981.9914

Tony represents commercial banks, private equity funds, and commercial borrowers in a variety of commercial finance transactions.

Tony advises corporate finance clients in a variety of commercial transactions including secured and unsecured revolving and term facilities, asset-based lending, oil and gas reserve-based lending, first lien/second lien transactions, acquisitions financing, and cross-border transactions. Tony also regularly represents banks in providing fund finance facilities, including limited partner subscription line and general partner and management company liquidity facilities. He also has experience representing corporate trust institutions in various agency capacities in connection with capital markets transactions.

Education

- Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law (J.D., 2021)
– cum Laude
- Kent State University (Bachelor of Business Administration, 2018)

Bar Admissions

- Texas