

United States Moves to T+2 Securities Settlement

March 24, 2017 – Cross-Border Counselor
by Christopher L. Doerksen

This week, the SEC approved a rule that would require broker-dealers to settle most securities transactions on a T+2 basis (shortening the current regime from T+3), effective September 5, 2017. See additional information in the post from our partner Jason Brenkert here. Will Canadian regulators follow suit?

Related People

- Christopher L. Doerksen

Related Capabilities

- Canada Cross-Border Transactions