

UPDATE: What Employers need to know now that the President has signed the Family Relief Act

by Aaron Goldstein

On Wednesday afternoon (March 18), the Senate passed the revised House bill by an overwhelming 90-8 margin. The bill—including the technical corrections made on Monday by the House of Representatives—was sent to the President, and he quickly signed it into law Wednesday evening. The law will be effective by April 2, 2020. Please see the full summary of the here.
