

Winnie Zhai

Legal Consultant

zhai.winnie@dorsey.com

Beijing – +86-10 8513-5907

Winnie provides clients with legal services in cross-border commercial litigation, trade compliance, and other regulatory matters.

With PRC legal qualification, Winnie is a legal consultant in Dorsey's Beijing office, focusing on PRC-related cross-border commercial litigations. Her practice areas also include economic sanctions, export control, and other regulatory compliance. Winnie has bountiful experience in advising Chinese and international clients, including prominent state-owned enterprises and private companies, in the field of agriculture, banking, finance, life science, and TMT. Fluent in both Mandarin and English, Winnie can advise China-based companies and international companies.

Select Experience

- Assisted a leading state-owned enterprise in multi-jurisdiction disputes involving US and Brazilian proceedings.
- Assisted one of the largest state-owned financial institutions of China in a pre-trial proceeding.
- Assisted a Chinese financial institution in enforcement of foreign judgment proceeding.
- Assisted a leading Chinese high-tech company in a patent infringement litigation proceeding.

Languages

- English
- Chinese

Education

- Beijing Normal University (LL.M., 2023)
 - Outstanding graduate
- Shanghai International Studies University (LL.B., 2020)

Bar Admissions

- China (currently inactive)